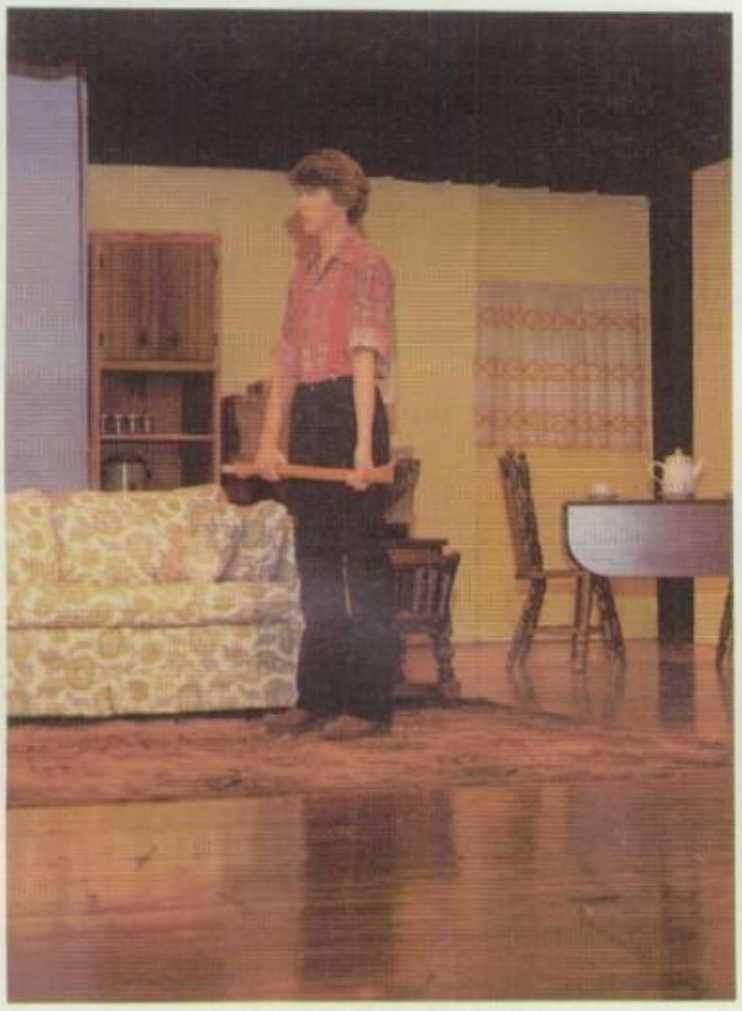
STORIES . . .

This is the story of Caston, 1981-1982. We have put together all the things that tell the story of Caston; long practices for sports and plays, studying for semester exams, and special people who helped to speed the year along. We hope this will help you to recall the things that made this year special. So . . . tell me a story.

Football fans brave the cold weather to see the Comets.

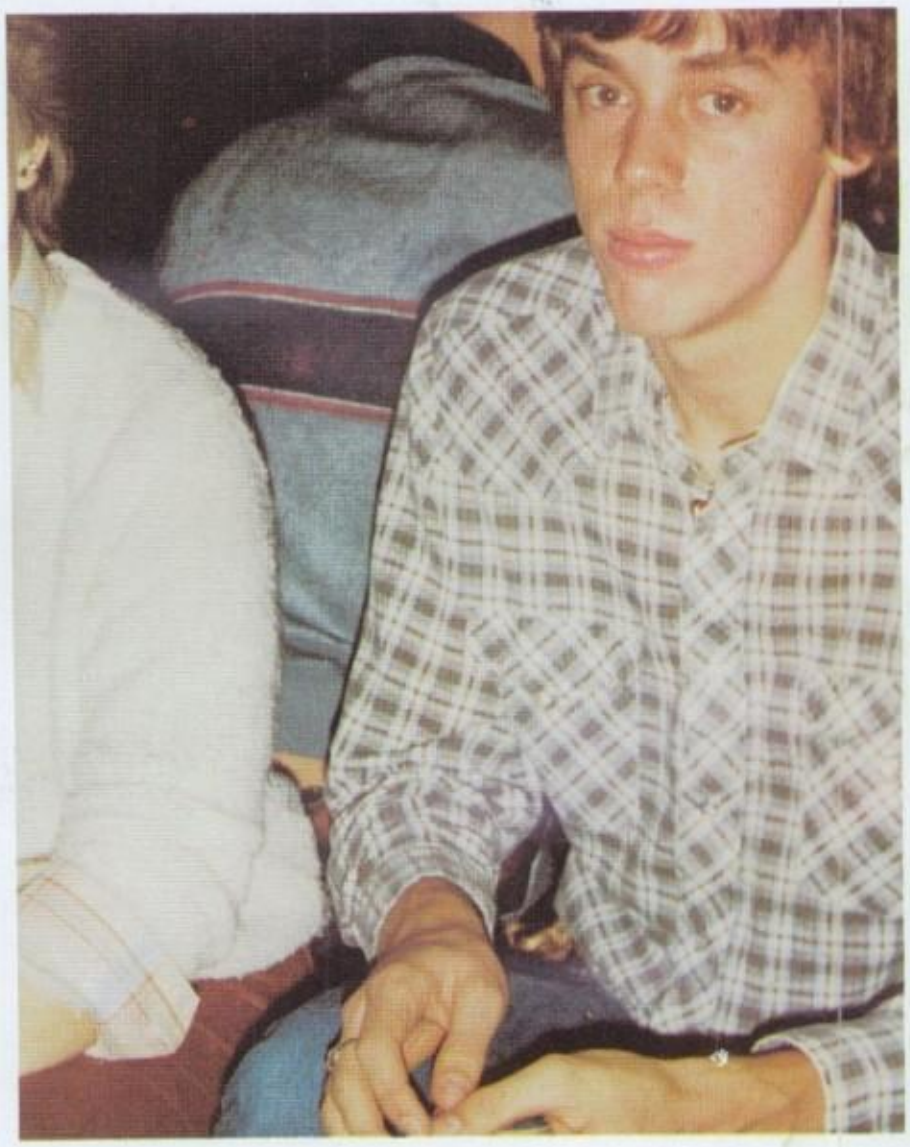


Brian Sackett is Piney in the Fall Play.

Lorie Jones gets caught at the Kissing Booth!

The Band performs "The Star-Spangled Banner" during their pre-game show.

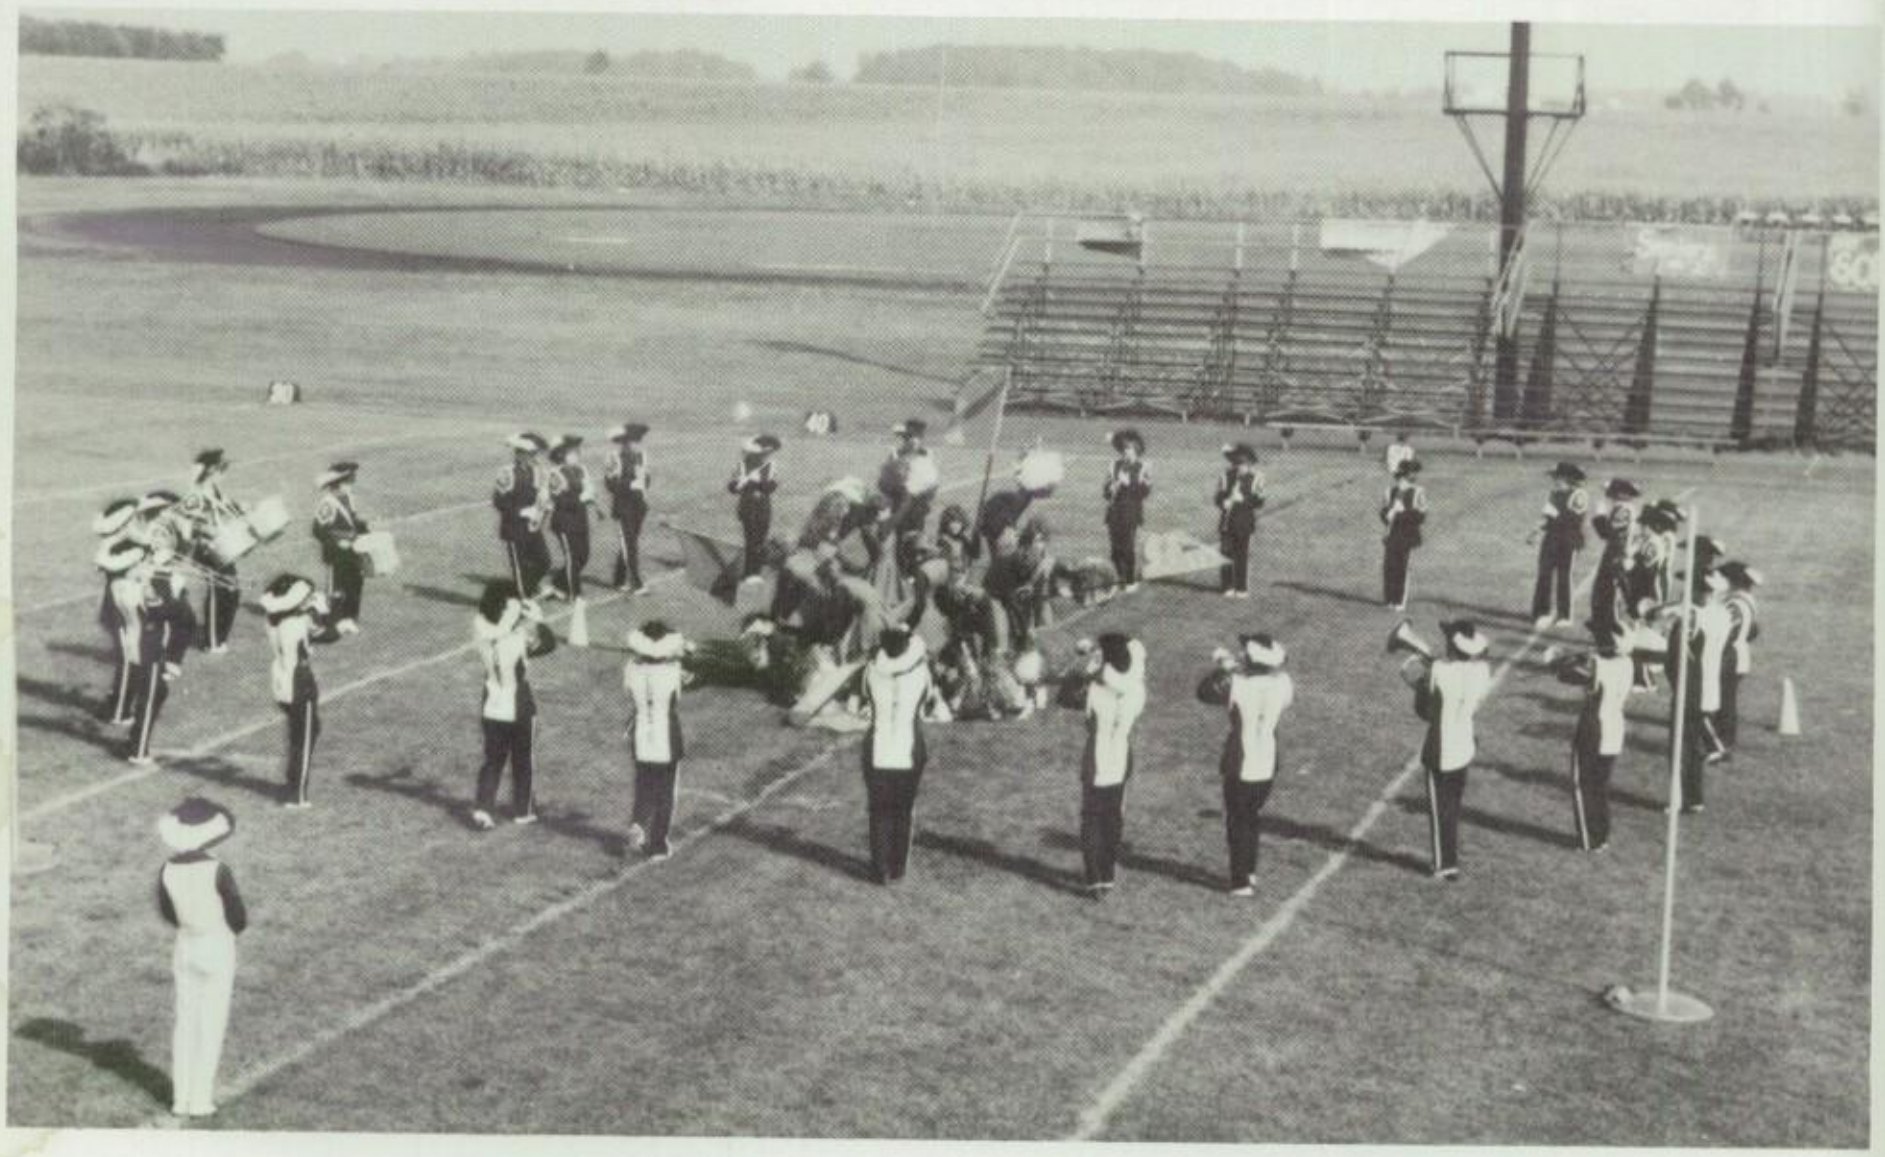
Students wear their strangest hats while watching Homecoming Games.



Kent Cress, why so tense?

The JV football players receive treats from the cheerleaders.

Missy Campbell prepares to bump the volleyball.



The band performs their half-time show for the Student Body.

Come on everybody, six inches!

Left: Bargain Basement Beauties!

Above: Where do you get those clothes?

LORI WAGONER IS 1981

HOMECOMING QUEEN

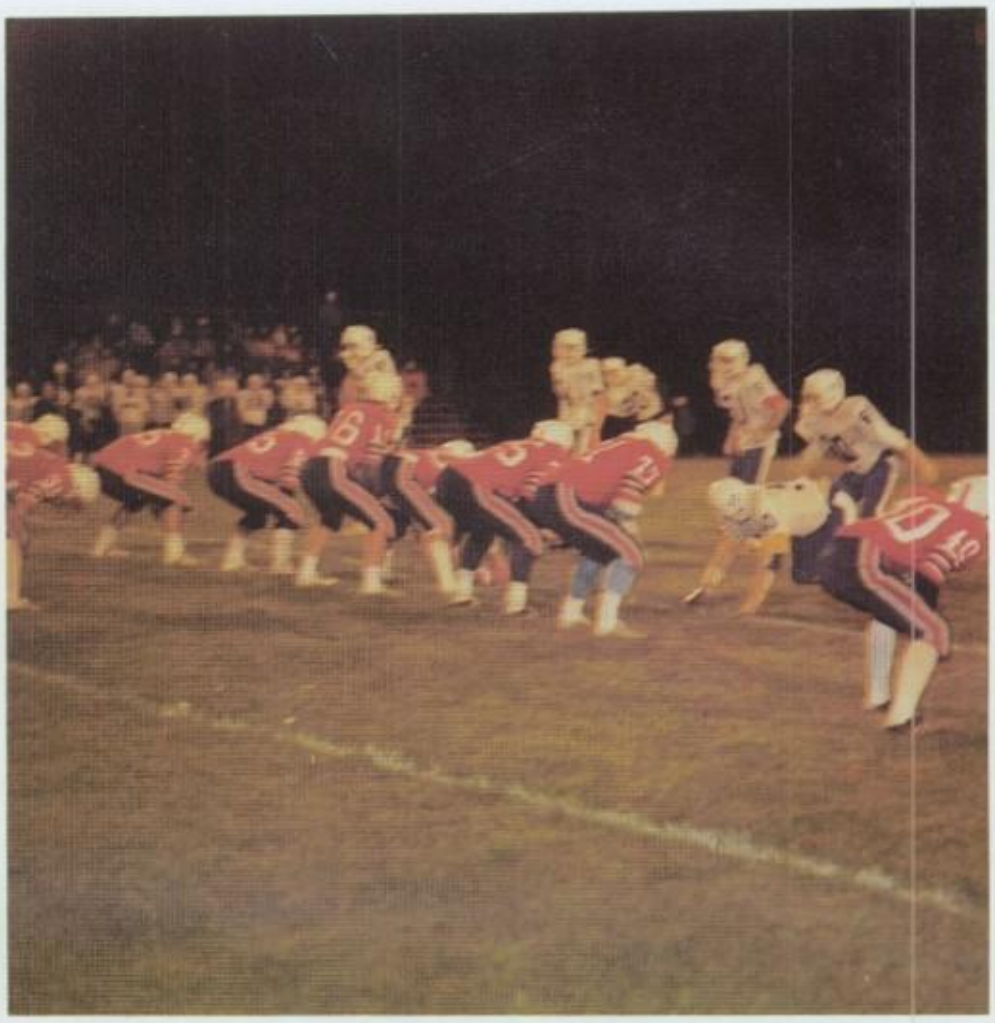
Lori Wagoner was crowned the 1981 Homecoming Queen by Karmen Hopkins, the 1980 Queen, and Mr. Rentschler, the High School Principal. Lori is a Senior, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wagoner. Lori belongs to 4-H, Sunshine Society, and Foreign Language Club. Lori is also a Varsity Cheerleader.

Lori Wagoner is crowned Homecoming Queen by Karmen Hopkins, 1980 Queen, and Mr. Rentschler.

Kristie Herd, Sue Redweik and Lisa Zartman lead the fans in the fight song.

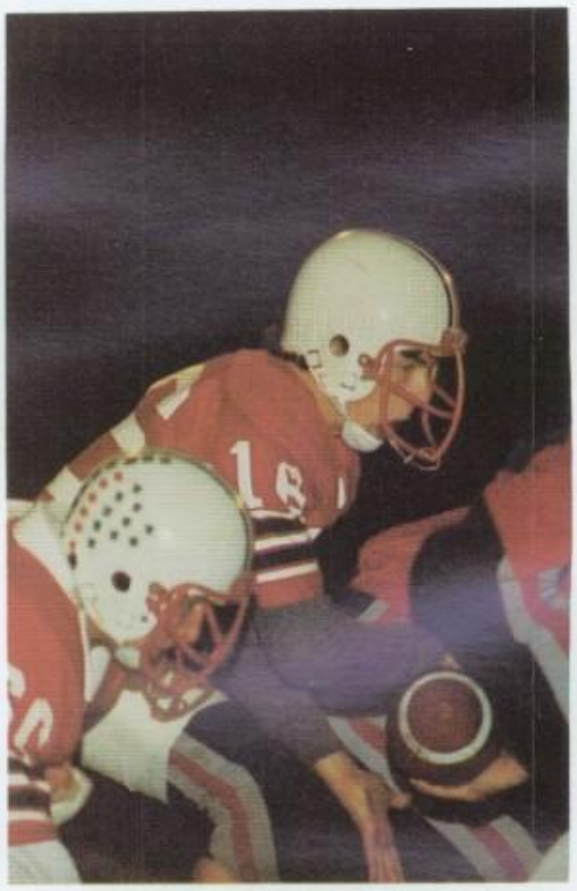
The Homecoming Court from left to right: Valerie Paschen, Lisa DeWitt, Lori Wagoner, Laura Putnam, and Sara Strasser.

The fans are ready for the Comets to run through the hoop!



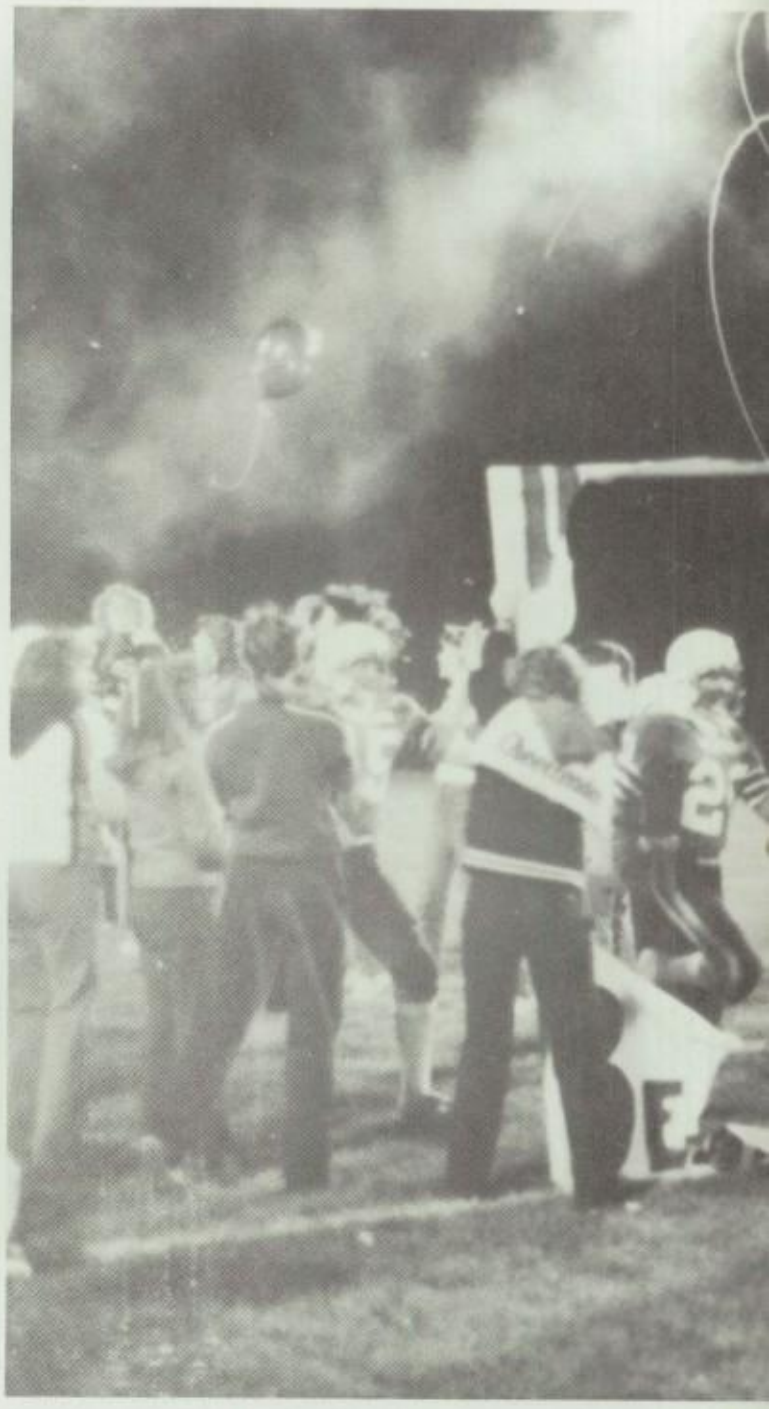
The Comets are on the line against the North White Vikings.

Joe Watson, Tim See, Lisa DeWitt, Kent Cress, Karla Field, Rob Cunningham, Rick Ricci, and Dan Burns mug for the camera.



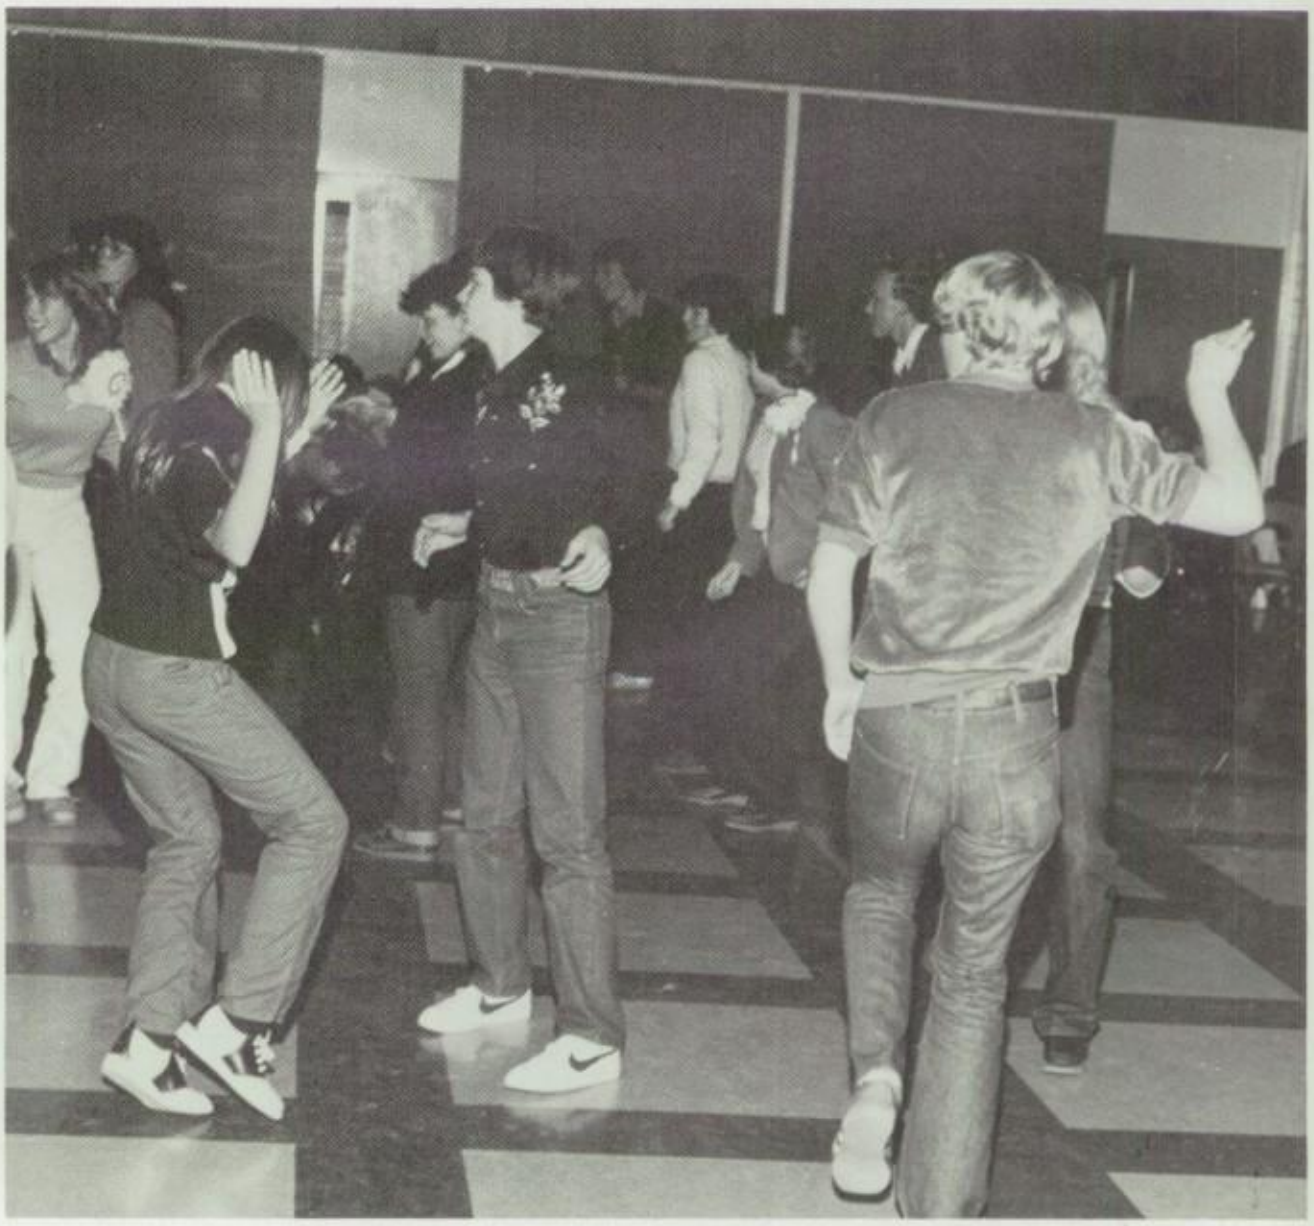
Jim Collins receives the snap.

Caston tacklers down a North White opponent.

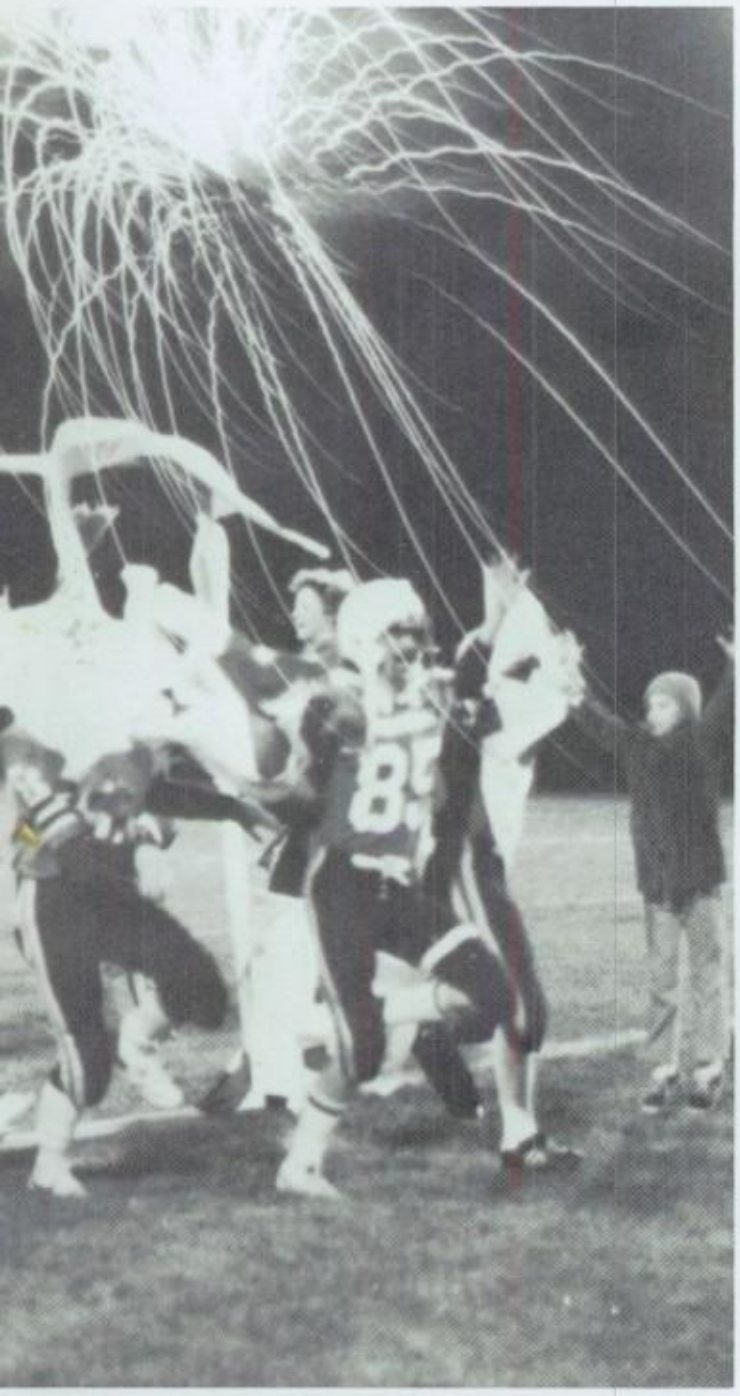


CASTON STUDENTS STRUT THEIR STUFF!

Many Caston students agreed that this year's Homecoming Dance was one of the best ever! Mike Wild, the disc jockey from WSAL, played music that kept everyone on their feet. The Student Council, which sponsored the dance, decorated the cafeteria, and supplied cookies and cokes for everyone. Those attending had a good time, and they were not ready to leave when the music stopped.



Dave Robinson shows everyone the "Funky Chicken".



COMETS BATTLE THE VIKINGS FOR HOMECOMING

Caston had high hopes for a Homecoming victory, but, unfortunately, the North White Vikings defeated the Comets 28-6. Caston had defeated the Vikings the year before at Homecoming, but North White had improved quite a bit. Although the Comets did not win the Homecoming Game, the week was a success.

The Caston Comets burst through the hoop, ready for action!

Tammy Hensley is a "punk".

Allen Baird spikes the volleyball during the games.

The Comets scramble for the ball.

"A BAD YEAR FOR TOMATOES"

Under the direction of Mrs. Kim Parker, the fall play was given November 6 and 7, 1981. The successful comedy revolved around the antics of the townspeople in Beaver Haven, who accused a reclusive actress of murdering her sister. The play was later performed for the student body.

The cast of "A Bad Year for Tomatoes".

Myra explains to Tom about her home-grown tomatoes.

Reba warns Myra to watch out for Willa Mae.

'TOMATOES' IS SUCCESS

Top Left: The Sheriff and Piney cannot understand why Tom is so amused.

Top Right: Myra, are you a Pisces?

Middle Left: "Myra, come back to Hollywood!"

Middle Right: "We know who killed Sadie!"

Left: Cora spills her life story over a bottle of Scorch.

CONCESSIONS

Serving fresh popcorn, coke, and candy are the duties of Caston's concession workers. These dedicated students work during all home sporting events. Mr. Smith is their sponsor.

OFFICE GIRLS

HIGH SCHOOL

With the many tasks that Mrs. Grable has to perform, it comes as quite a relief to have helpers each period. The office girls answer the telephone, type, and run errands. There are usually two girls who work in the office each period.

ELEMENTARY

The elementary office, like the high school, is a very busy place. To help ease the burden of Mrs. Smith, the elementary secretary, several high school girls help during their study periods.

LIBRARY AIDES

HIGH SCHOOL

Finding books and helping students look for research material were some of the duties assigned to the library aides. Another group helpful to Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Shafer were the A.V. boys. They delivered projectors and films to classrooms.

Above: Sitting: Lora Dillman, Karla Field, Lisa Scott. 2nd Row: Mrs. Parker, Shelli Vigar, Lisa Showley, Shelly Evans, Julie Oneal.

AUDIO-VISUAL BOYS

Right: Jon Clemans, Joe Watson.

Below: Janie Emery, Julie Wilson, Kit Grauel, Missy Rothermel, Lisa Flora, Angie Keller, Jenny Price.

ELEMENTARY

Girls from the junior and senior high school helped in the elementary library this year by checking-out books and putting books away.

Club-sponsored dances and a ski trip taken by the student council were just a few of the club activities this year. Our story continues with sports.

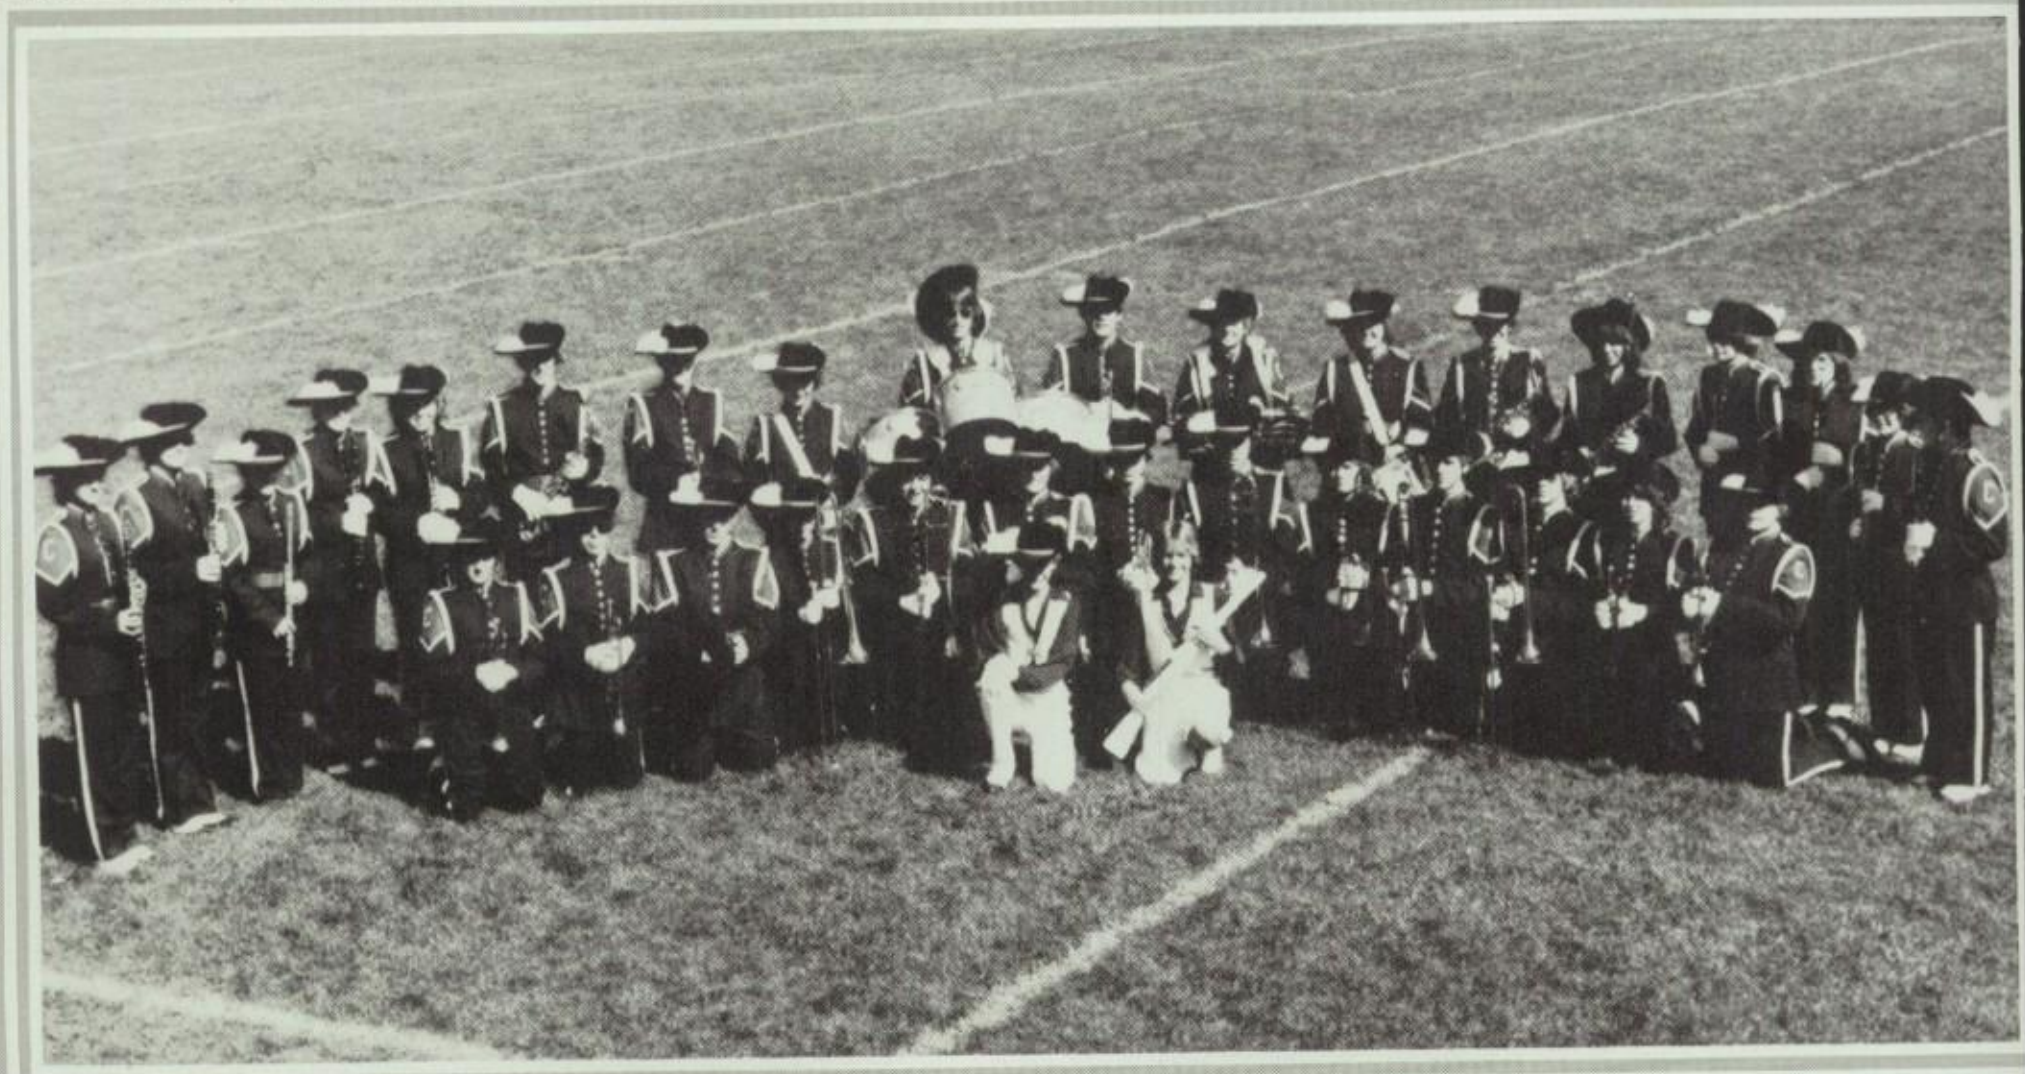
ANGIE KELLER KIT GRAVEL JILL BOOKWALTER

Although 1981-82 was not a year filled with sports victories, our teams gained experience and confidence to compete. Our next chapter tells about the music makers and shows typical classes at C.H.S.

CLASSES

C.H.S. MARCHING COMETS



1st Row: Cary Taylor, Lora Dillman. 2nd Row: Lenny Ricci, Tom St. Clair, Larry Hart, Missy Campbell, Mike Reed, Todd Miller, John Berdine, Kent Cress, Julie Oneal, Todd Corn, Charlie Hendrickson, Hilda Louthain, Beth Fisher. 3rd Row: Shelly Rogers, Suzy Hoagland, Trina Hart, Tammy Corn, Becky Parrison, Brian Raub, Joe Warson, Bill Champ, Rob Cunningham, Phil Keller, Cindy Dillman, Jenny Bookwalter, Rob Warner, Pattie Simmons, Robin Price, Aline Berdine, Ann Rhodes, Tammy Watson.

BAND IS IMPRESSIVE!

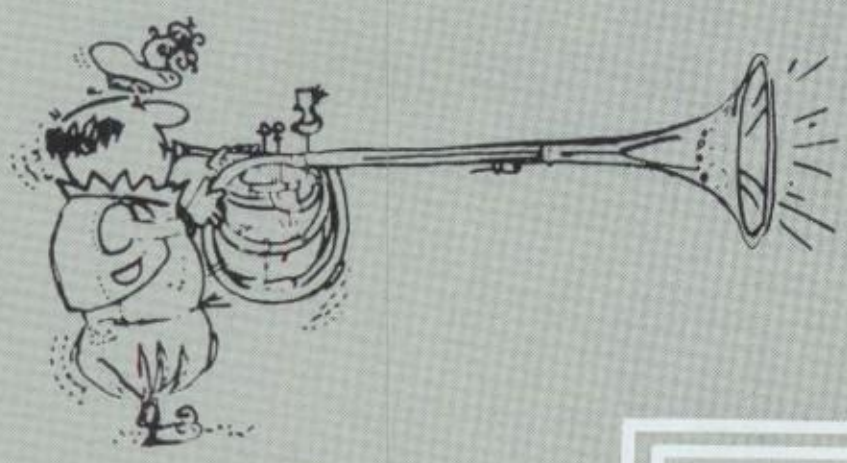
The band, under the direction of Liz Krick, was the highlight of many home games. The sound was the fullest it had been in several years. The band attended a marching contest at Lewis Cass High School where they won a perfect inspection and Second place trophies.

Rob Cunningham, Band President; Drum major, Cary Taylor; Rifle Twirler, Lora Dillman; Flag Corp Captain, Micheala Babb; and Miss Krick hold band trophies.

SHOOTING STARS

1st Row: Laura Bucks, Deb Hauser, Cynthia Keller, Janie Herd, Lisa Grable, Micheala Bobb, Jodi Hoagland. 2nd Row: Kendra Grass, Vonnie Bloomquist, Lora Dillman, Waranah Hoagland, Cathy Floyd.

The Flag Corp was given the name "Shooting Stars" this year. The group performed like stars this year with their snappy routines and smiles. They made halftimes a treat.



JR. HIGH BAND

The Jr. High Band sounded very mature this year. Their well rounded sound and ability to play music with enthusiasm will come in handy in the future. Liz Krick is their director.

CHORUS IS STRONG DESPITE SIZE

SWING CHOIR

The Choir and Swing Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Nicki Wilson, were very active this year by singing at school programs and local community functions. A new event this year was a performance for North Miami High School on April 14.

THE MANY FACES OF CONCENTRATION

Above: The Brashes are ready for the fumble.

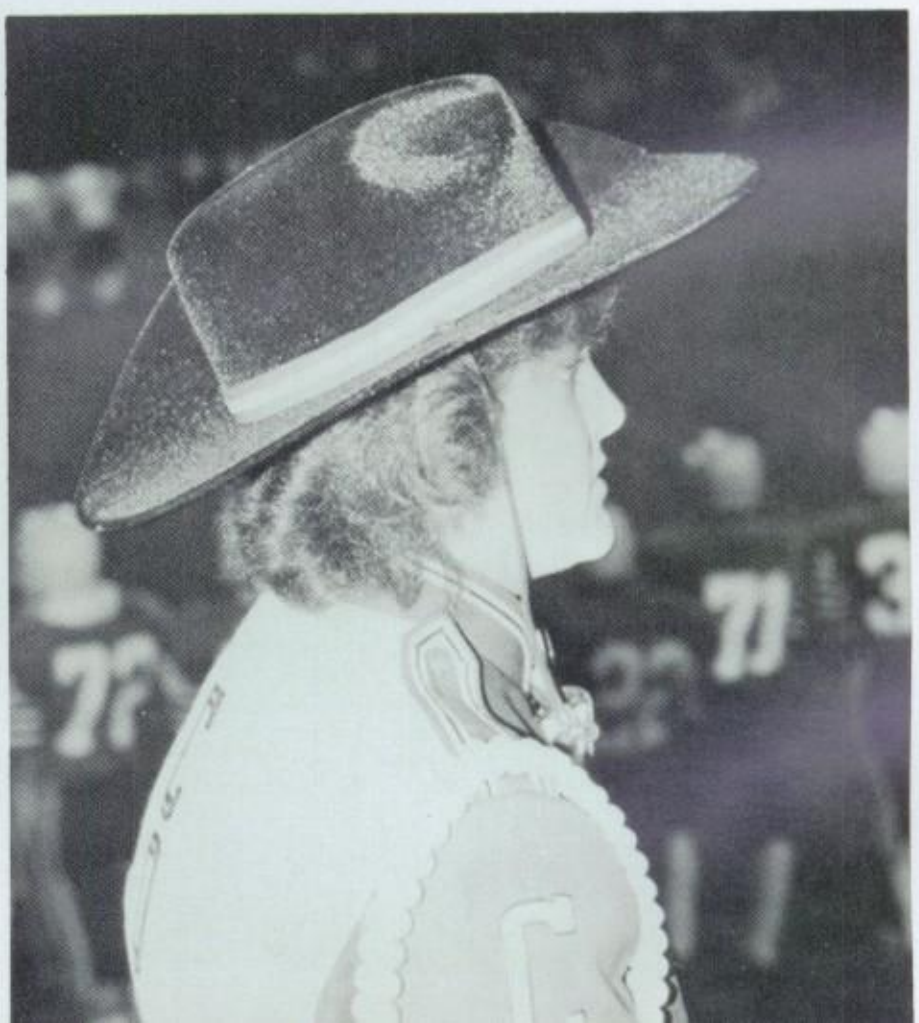
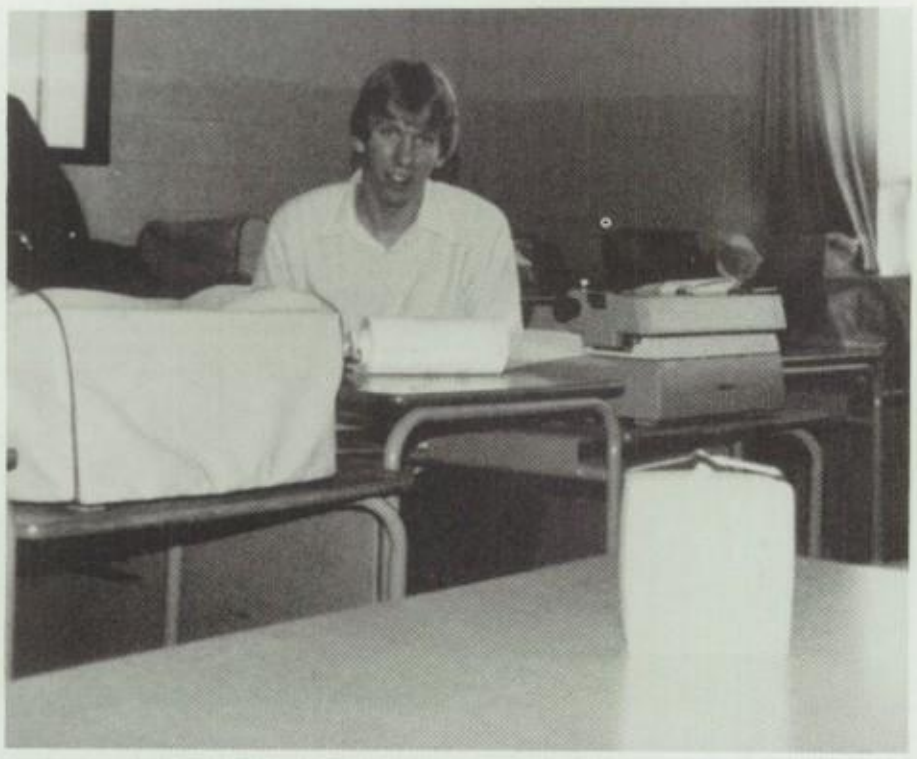
Bottom: Jenny goes through the band's routine in her mind.



CLASSES: TEACHERS AND STUDENTS



Above Left: Mark doesn't believe he has that much typing to do!

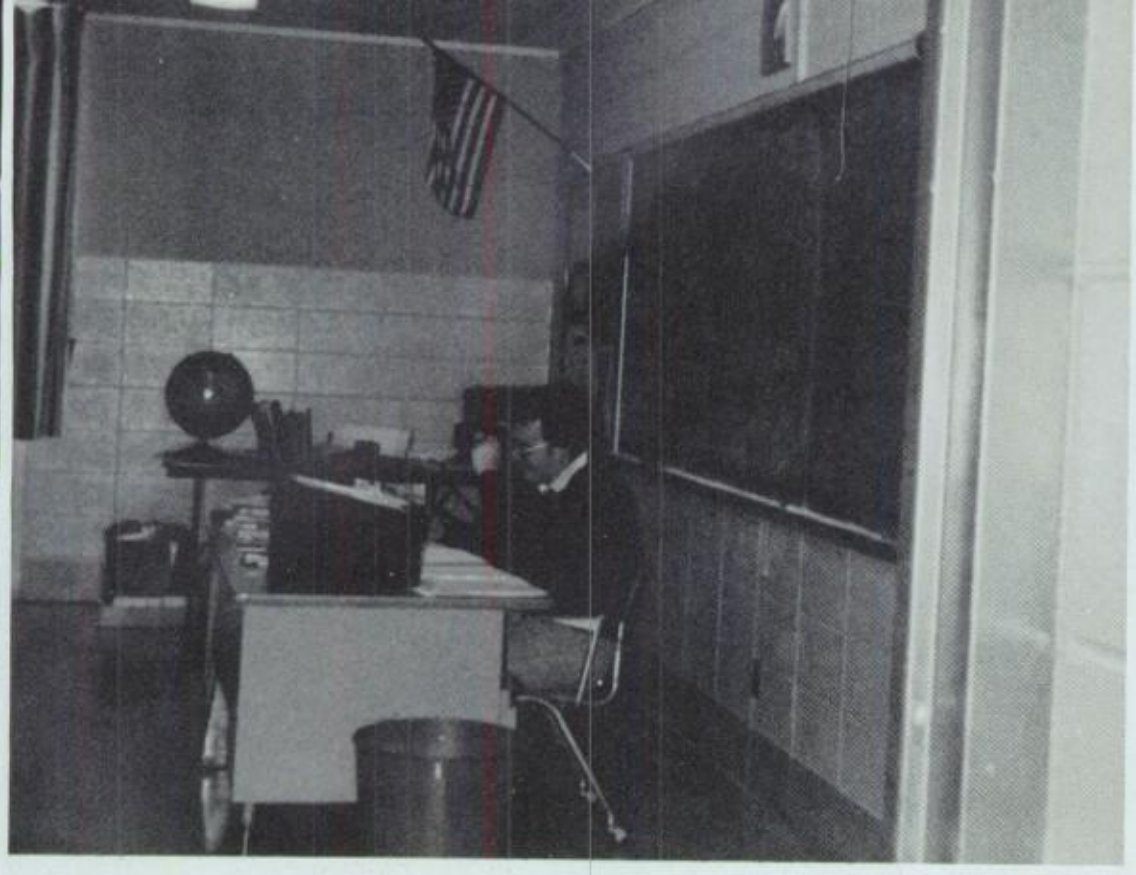
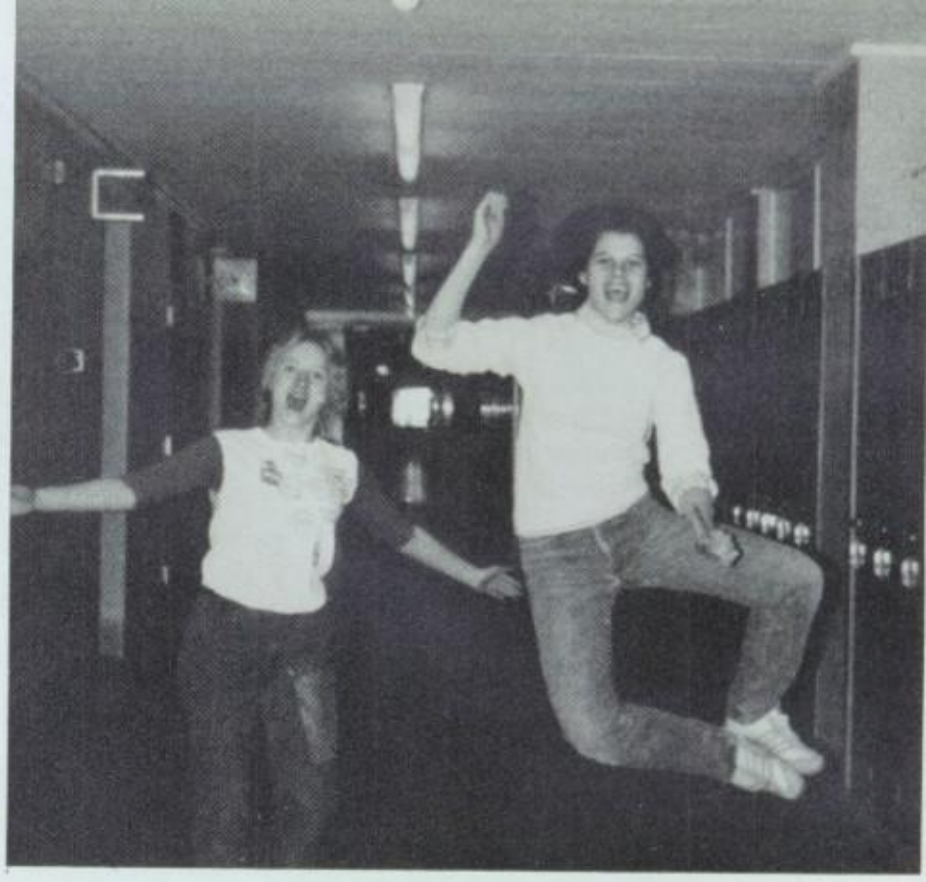
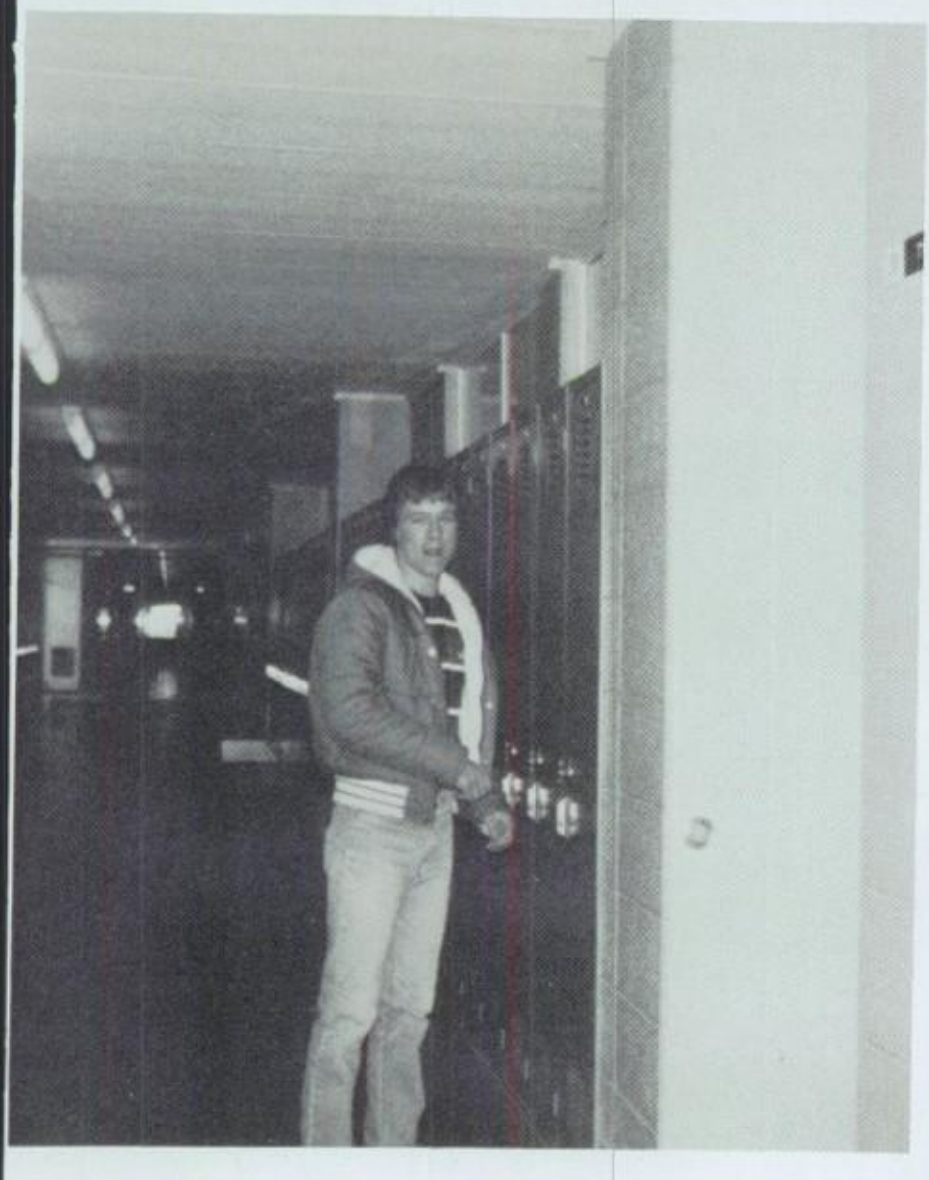
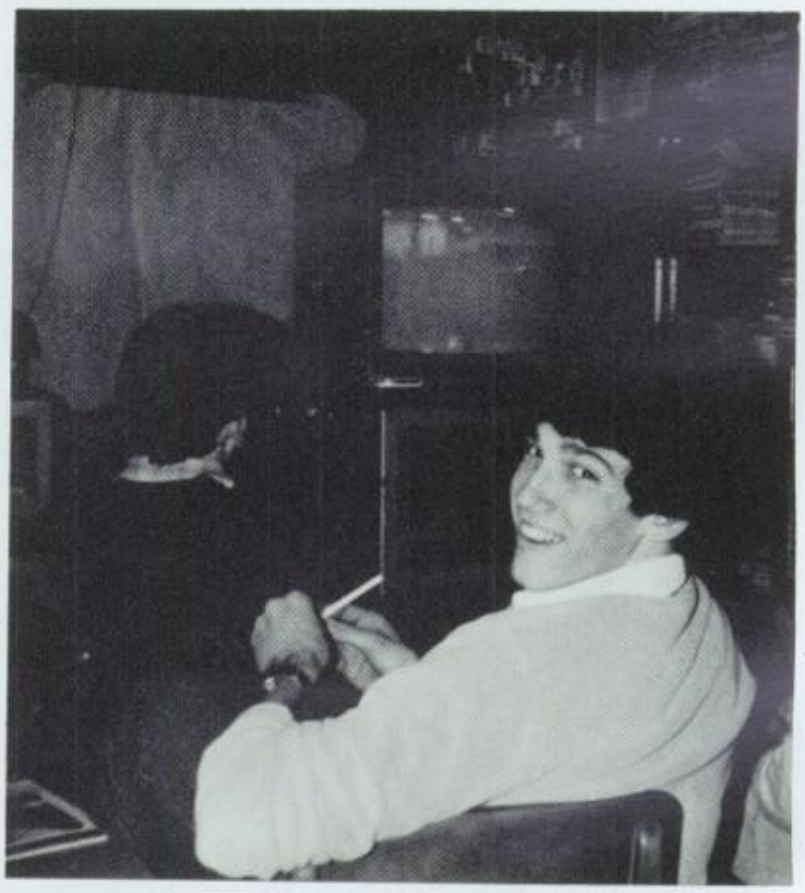
Left: Lora tells one of her many funny jokes while working in the library.

Below: Ag. students Bill Plummer, Mark Spencer, and Scott Wagoner pose by their tractors during F.F.A. week.









Top Left: Mr. Miller tries to calm his classes.

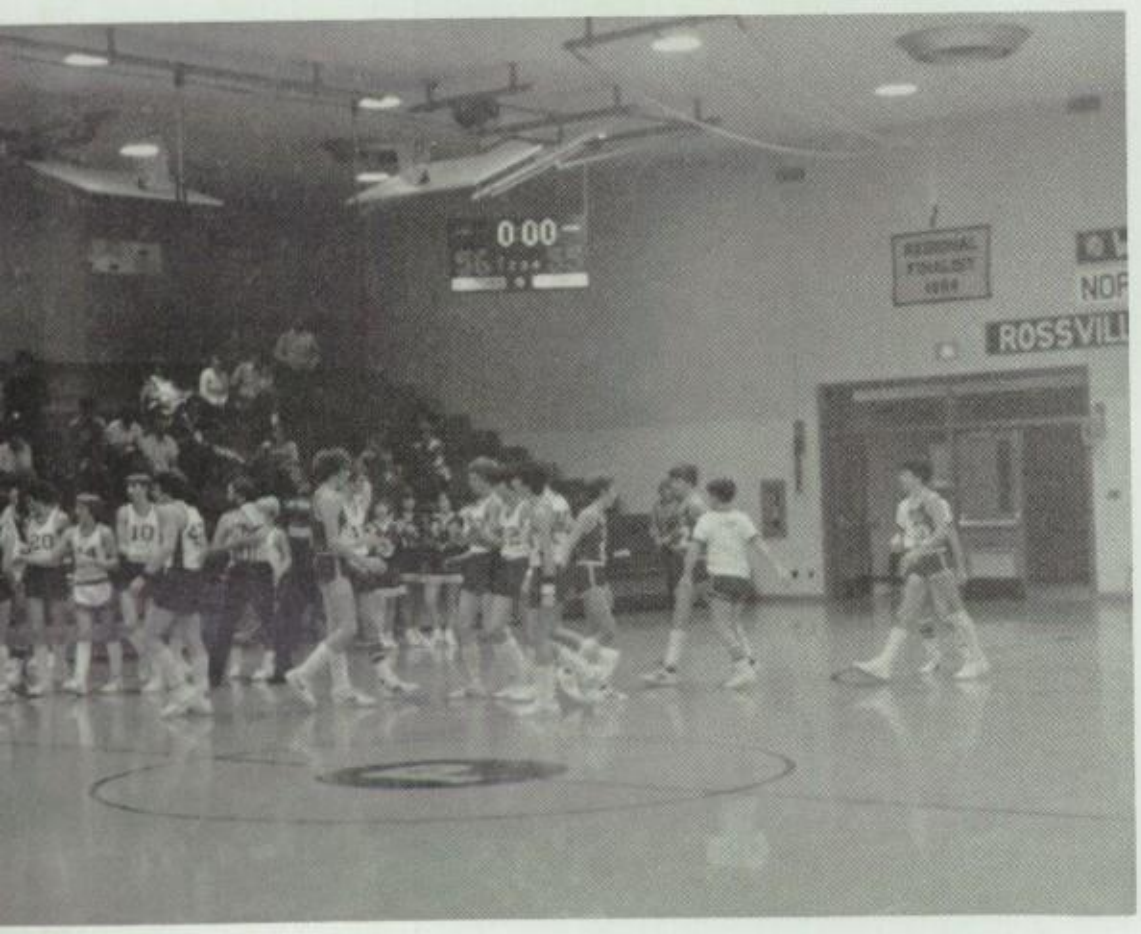
Above: Kip, you'd better get to class!

Above Right: Having troubles, girls?

Right: Bob, the T.V. is the other direction!

PEOPLE ON THE MOVE . . .



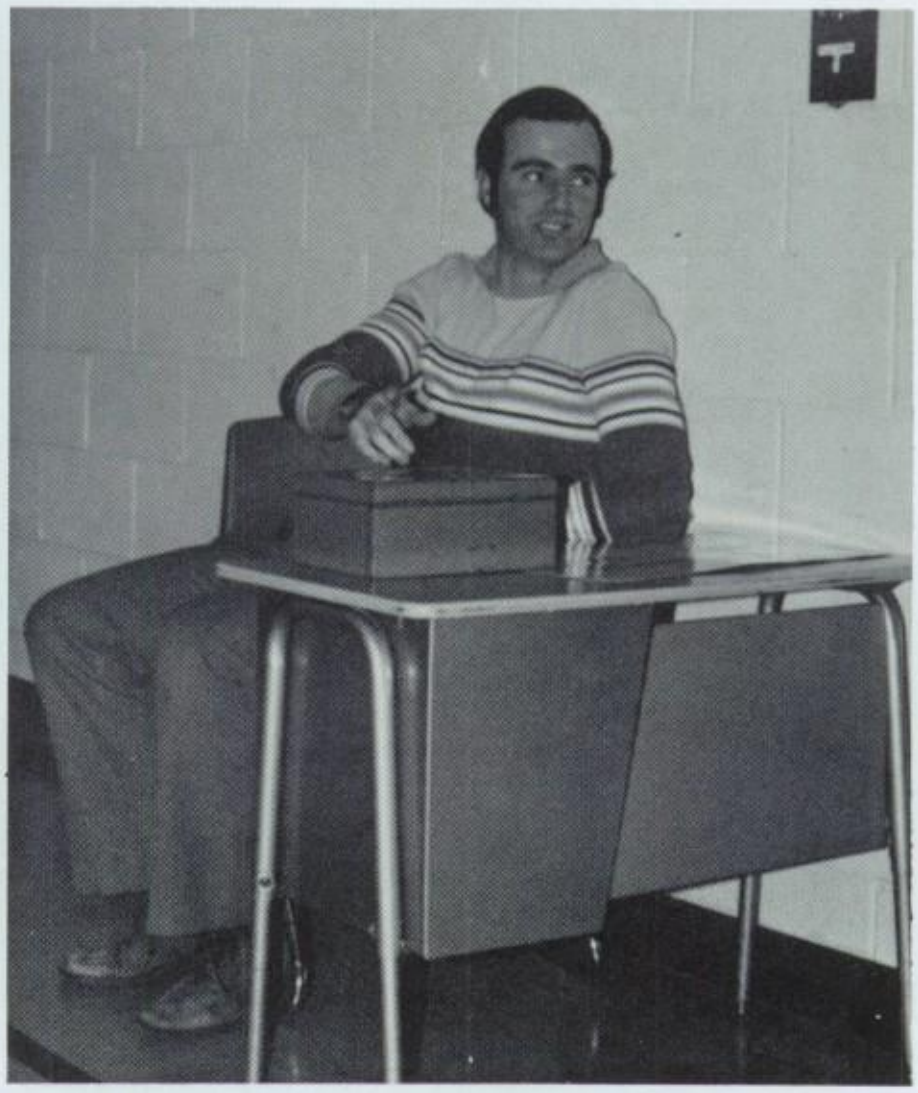
Upper Left: The volleyball girls psyche themselves.

Upper Right: Don Fisher works his way down the floor.

Above: The 8th grade boys accept congratulations.

Right: Pattie plays her sax with spirit.

. . . AND RELAXING



Upper Left: Julie is on the verge of laughter.

Upper Right: Mr. Drotar's numerous activities include selling tickets.

Above: Rob questions Beth's worldly advice.

C.H.S. offered different classes for students with different needs. Castron students have several fond memories of their teachers and fun times spent by just talking or sharing a joke. The spring musical and prom are other memorable experiences.

SENIOR WILLS

I, Deb Anders, being of excellent mind and perfect body, do hereby will the following: To Phyllis Brown and Jenny Cloyd I will the smarts that I had to pass Government. To Tammy Corn I will the power to handle herself around good looking guys. To Elaine Crispen I will the power to not get sick from looking in you-know-who's hair.

I, Mike Barnett, being of strong mind and perfectly proportioned body will to my brother, Kris, my ability to slam dunk a basketball. To Craig Douglass I will my ability to hit thunderously long straight drives and my ability to keep my cool in the worst pressure situations. To Scott Wagoner, all my magical charm that keeps the women chasin' you.

I, Cindy Campbell, having a brain and body, do hereby bequeath the following things to the following people: To Eric Grimes I give my ability to make original words that can be pronounced in a variety of ways, according to need. To the cheerleaders who attended camp last summer, I give my nude photo album that we used to blackmail them. To Lora Dillman I give my big toe to make up for the one that she lost in our room.

I, Victor Clements, being of small mind and stubby body, hereby will the following things: To my son, Jim Hufford I leave the ability to roam the halls during the school day without any questions asked. To the Senior class of 1983 I leave my sense of humor, sense of decency, and 85¢ in Bazooka bubble gum wrappers. And finally, to that one special person in my life, to Deana I leave my car, a vast collection of earrings, all the good grades I never got, and a partridge in a pear tree.

I, Kent Cress, being of superb intellect and being Tom Selleck's twin brother, do hereby will my uniform on the Cross Country team to anyone capable of filling my shoes. To Mike Reed I will my exquisite black shoes for marching band, and to Martha Moss I will someone as patient as me to listen to her problems.

I, Robert Cunningham, being the nice guy that I am, give Billy Champ the use of the school's great drum set, and to Phil Keller, my band!

I, Mark Dale DeWitt, being of partially deteriorated mind and somewhat sound body hereby will the following: To Craig Douglass I will my position as FFA President and its joys and discouragements. To Cristi Smith I will the rightful ownership to all the crud and mess in locker 526; you may now clean to your heart's content. To Perry and Kim I will the right to hold up the wall outside the health room after lunch, and my ability to dodge Mr. Rentschler whenever it is necessary.

I, Lisa DeWitt, being of stubborn mind and stunted growth, will to Kendra Grass and Cathy Floyd an everlasting friendship like Tammy's and mine. To Tammy Watson I will an office partner who did as good a job helping in the office as me. To Tracy Hensley, I leave my position on the girls' Varsity Basketball Team.

I, Cindy Dillman, of tired, but secure, mind and body will to anyone my position as miler for the spectacular Caston Girls' Track Team. Good Luck! I will to next years' Senior Volleyball players the enjoyment I experienced during my last year. Have Fun and Don't Stop Believin'! I will to Mrs. Parker the ability to duck for those little black UFO's on the track field.

I, Angie Dittman, being of demented mind and Florida-tanned body, will the following: I will to my sister Lisa my title of Dionne Dittman, because she's the only one who meets the qualifications. I will to next year's Physics Class the ability to get Mrs. Miller off the subject and onto experiments. I will to Lisa and Shelly Lockwood my truck and keys, so they won't have to bum rides off everyone.

I, Diane Gearhart, being of sound mind and small body, will to Phyllis Brown the charm to get Leslie Dillman as her boyfriend. I will to Tammy Corn the Senior knowledge that I have and she doesn't. I will to Elaina Crispen the will power to control herself over guys.

I, Susan Hartzler, being of too little mind and too-much body will the following: To those poor, unfortunate high-schoolers who must ride bus #16, protection from all the screaming little pygmies and from all the near-fatal neck-breaking stops! To Nancy, the ability to stay afloat, not only in the bathtub but in ponds and other large bodies of water. To Kim, my co-ordinated leaping style. May you continue to do it gracefully!

I, Charlie Hendrickson, being of warped mind and disfigured body leave my band position of second chair to Mike Reed so he can do as well as I did. I leave to my sister the ability to have fun and not get into trouble. Lastly I thank my parents and best friend Dale Green for all the understanding and help they have given me when I needed it most.

I, Tammy Hensley, being of wandering mind and unique body will the following things: I will to Tracy Hensley my spot on the Varsity Cheerleading squad. I will to Shari Nead my magnificent sailor outfit that she loves so well. I will to Mrs. Cox a drama class with as much personality, talent, and good looks as last year's class.

SENIOR WILLS

I, Rae Ann Kimble, being of small mind and body, do hereby will my car to Jim Collins. My senior skirt to any girl who thinks she can fit their tiny hiny in it, and all my love to Mom, Dad and especially Mike Collins.

I, Hilda Louthain, being of crinimal mind and decrepit body do hereby will Lenny Ricci and Todd Miller to my dear cousin, Shawna. I will my sneaky thievery to whomever in the next Trig class. To anyone who has driven while asleep, I will my ability to handle the curves on the county line road.

I, Lida Phillips, being of neglected body and over-memorized mind, do hereby bequeath the following: To Allen Baird I give an iron skillet so that he can sizzle for all the times I burnt him — may he always remember Ag. To Mr. Smith I give a pair of earplugs so that his excellent hearing will miss all the trash said in Ag. And to Mrs. Jones I give my excellent spelling ability so that she won't have to ask someone how to spell every word she writes.

I, Rick Ricci, being of courageous mind and overtired body, hereby grant the following: To Billy Spangler, I give my ability to hand in drafting papers on time. To Doug Arthur I grant my paintbrush, so he can paint better than I do. To Shawna Louthain, I leave the thoughts we had in school.

I, Lisa Scott, being of withered mind and mutilated body do hereby bequeath the following to the following people: To anyone who is hard-working, deserving, and devoted to winning, I leave my place on the volleyball team, may you uphold it with pride. To Mrs. Cox I leave a Senior English class that is as witty and charming as ours. To Craig Douglass I leave my position as Student Council President and a super-size bottle of aspirin to relieve all the headaches that being President can cause.

I, Sir Timothy David See, being of vastly intelligent mind and indescribably handsome body, do bequeath the following miscellaneous items: To Pat Brown and Curt Moss I give my ability to skip class every day and still get A's in Art. To Craig Douglass, I will my title as Jack Frack, for those days when he's not shooting up to par. And finally, to the girls of Caston High, I will the memory of my perfectly proportioned body brushing by them in the halls.

I, Janet Shoup, being of absent mind and stunted growth, will to Holly See my outstanding typing ability. To Lisa Dittman, my ability to stick my foot in my mouth during journalism. And to Martha Moss my amazing ability to look for rings.

I, Lisa Showley, being of sound mind and body bequeath the following things to the following people. To Lucinda Mikesell, I will the ability to grow and big and strong and someday you'll be able to beat me up. To Mr. Drotar I will a College Prep class with the brains and exceptionally good writing talents like the College Prep class of 1982. To Todd Lowe and Gary Winegardner I will the ability to flunk all Biology tests and still pass the semester.

I, Shelli Vigar, do hereby will and bequeath my speed to Nancy Townsend so that she can take my place on the basketball floor. My cold, hot, drafty, but never comfortable seat in room 209 to Lucinda Mikesell as a possible Senior of 1984.

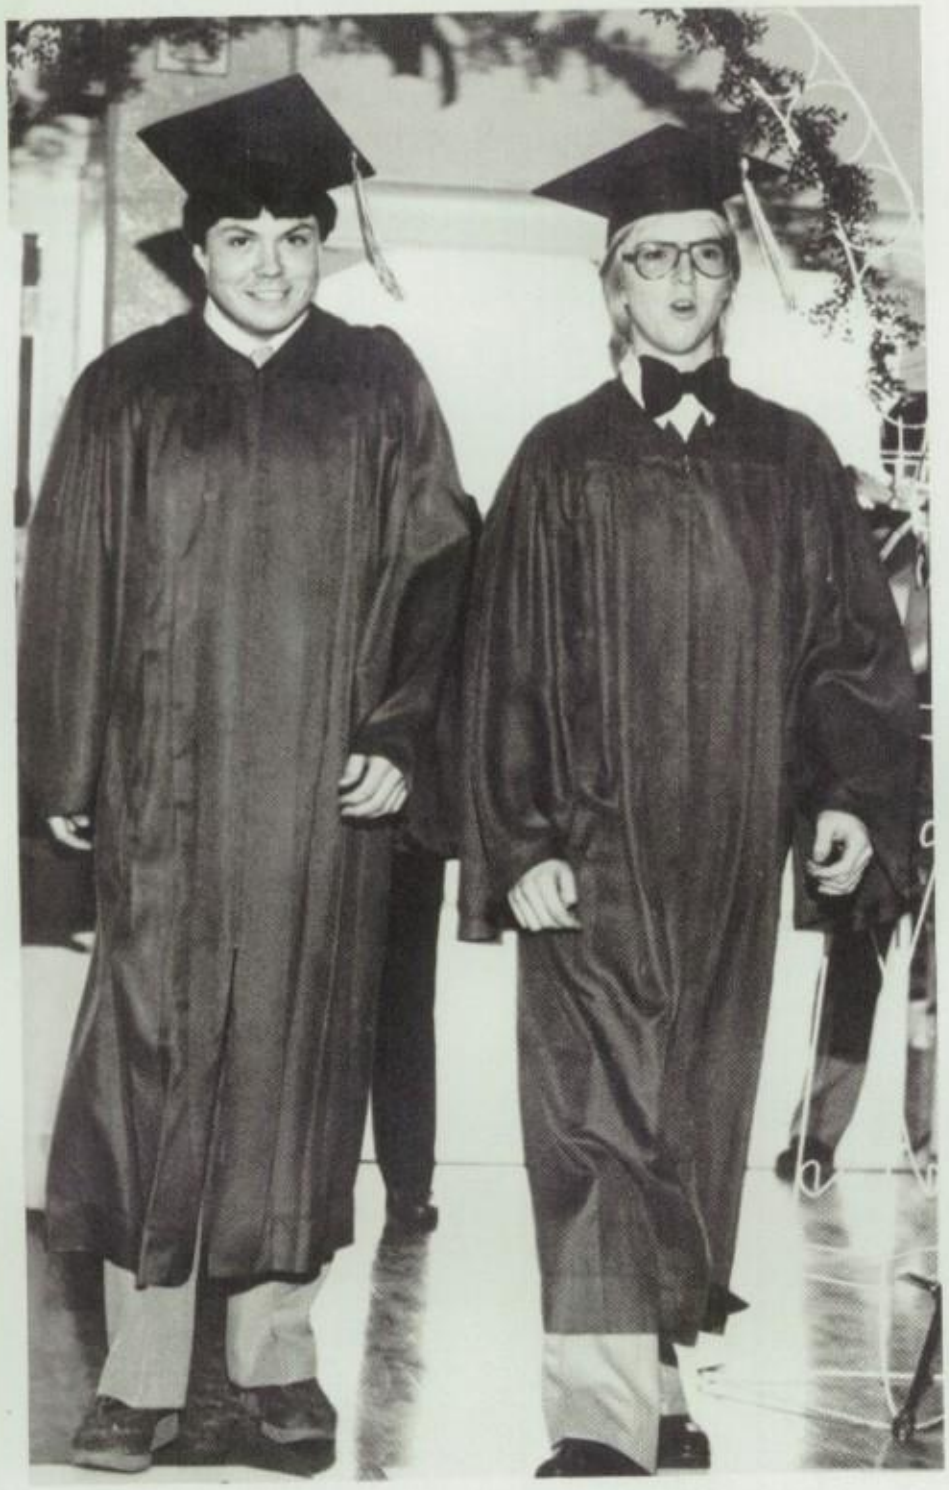
I, Lori Wagoner, being of warped mind and shrunken body will my ability to always get home late to my brother Scott. I will my breath-taking height to anyone who would like to know how it feels to tower over everyone else. Last, but not least, I will my Varsity Cheerleading position to any girl who can handle all the criticism you get from the fans.

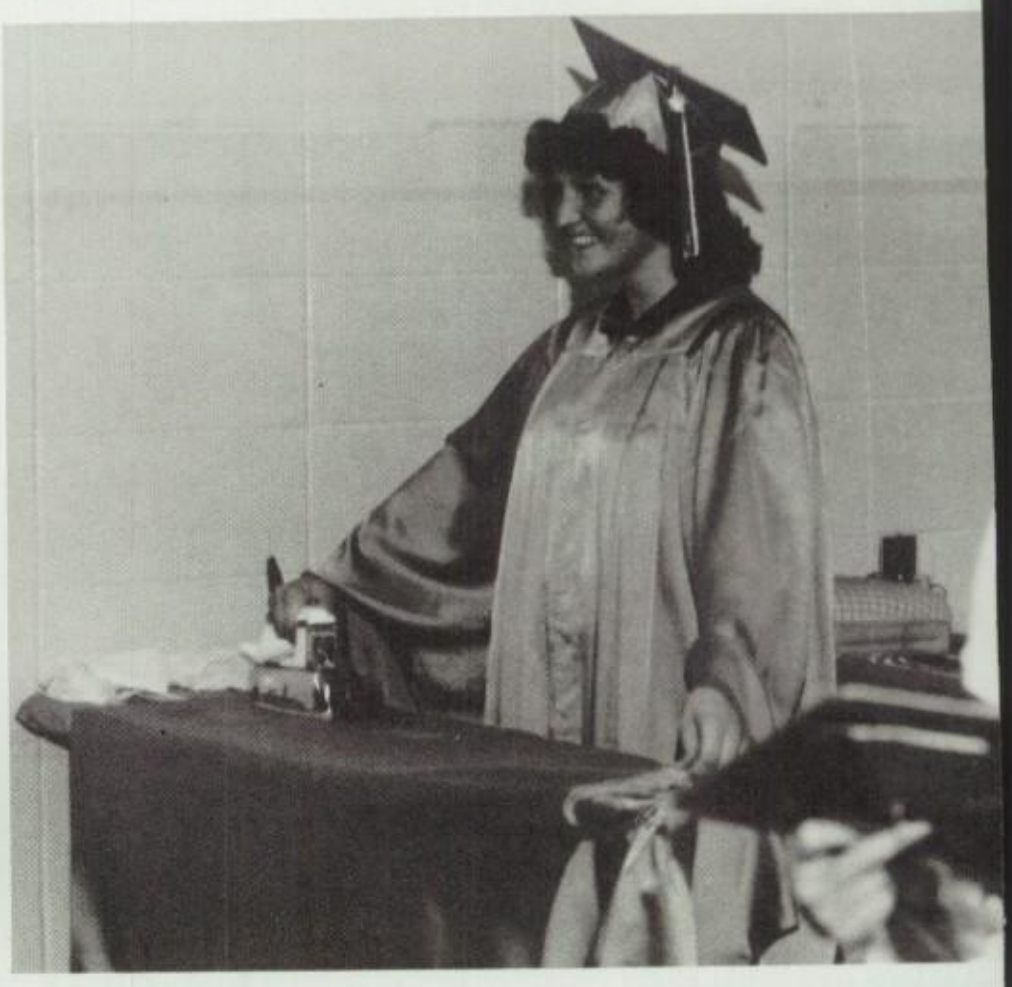
I, Joe Watson, being of no mind and little body do hereby will to Miss Krick all my wrong notes and hopefully someone else will do as badly as I have done. I leave to Billy Spangler all my curdowns, maybe he can use them better than I. Lastly I'd like to thank my parents for putting up with me and my bad disposition.

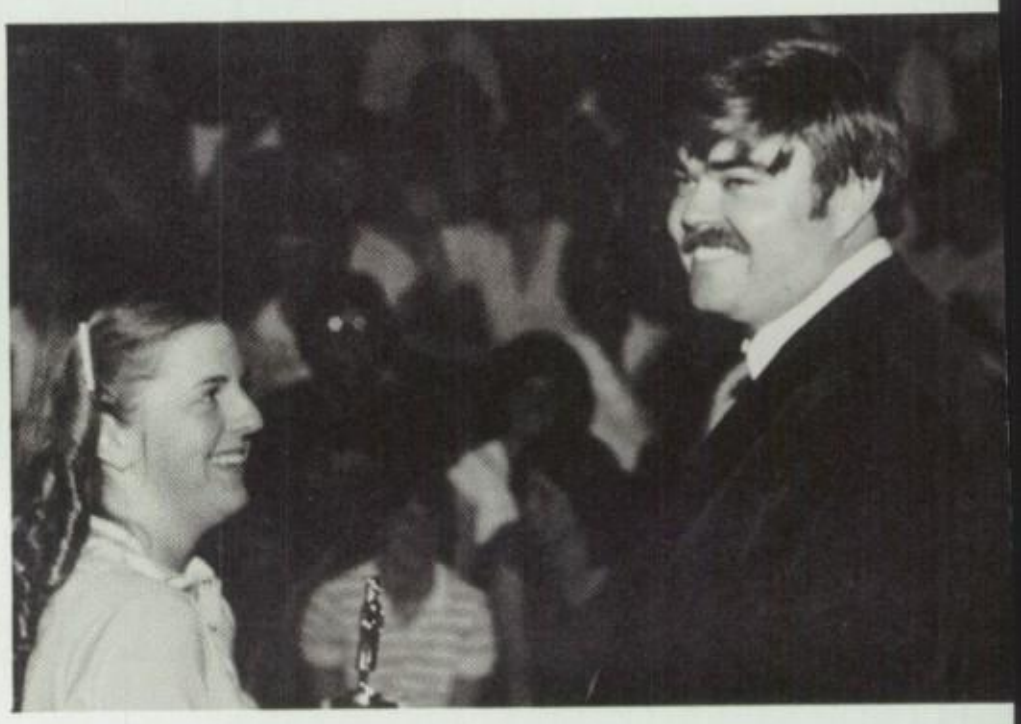
I, Timothy A. Wetzel, being of sound mind and body will all of my worldly things to the following: My most prized possession, my car, to Sam Tigler so he don't have to drive his old truck anymore. My good looks to Mark Spencer so he maybe now can get him a good-looking girlfriend, and also I will him my ability to tell jokes. My locker to Lori McCarty who has already taken it over.

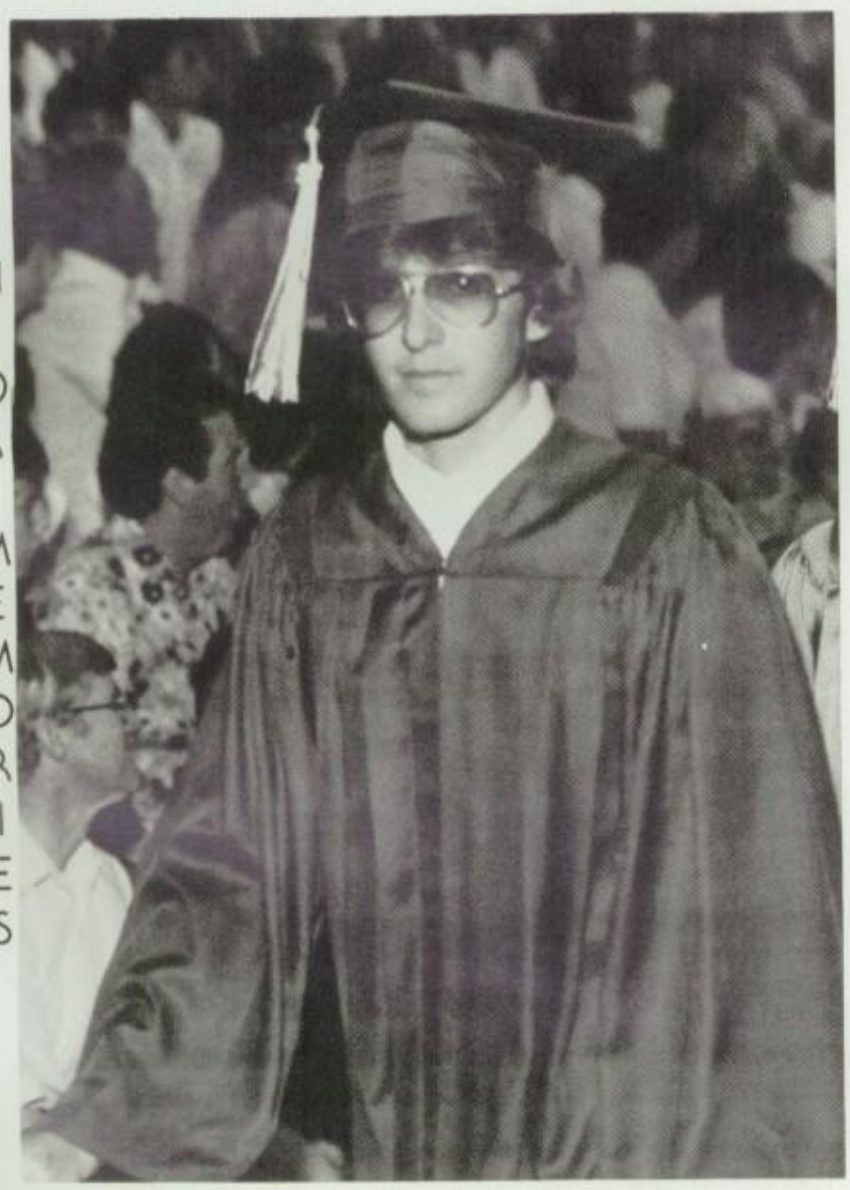
I, Darla Sue Williams, being of punked-out mind and perpetually-dieting body, do hereby bequeath the following: To Jeff James and Martha Moss, I leave the Yearbook room and all the visits from Howdy that they can stand. To Craig Douglass and Darryl Hoover I leave a book entitled How To Be Evil In High School. Finally, to Christy Williams, Betty Horn, and Lorie Jones, I leave my Tone T-shirt, headband, and shoes, because they've got the beat!

I, Anna Williamson, being of all-knowing mind and gorgeous bod, will the following things to the following people. To Holly See, I will my honorable center position in basketball. To my little brother, I will the use of my favorite green Pontiac. Last, and least, I will to next year's Trig class the ability to live through Mr. Uhrich's "jokes".









SENIOR MEMORIES

SENIORS

Senior Class Officers are: Lisa Showley — Secretary, Kent Cress — President, Lisa DeWitt — Treasurer, Lori Wagoner — Vice-President, and Lida Phillips — Student Council.

Caston had three Foreign Exchange Students this year, and they were all Seniors. The girls are: Petra Smidt from Germany, Mari Obuki from Japan, and Glenda Cedeno from Ecuador.

SENIOR BESTS

Most Dependable: Darla Wiliams, Kent Cress.
Most Likely to Succeed: Hilda Louthain, Kevin Pruiett.
Most Polite: Shelli Vigar, Mark DeWitt.
Biggest Flirt: Terri Strawback, Allen Baird.
Best Personality: Glenda Cedeno, Tim See.
Most Active in School: Cindy Dillman, Rob Cunningham.
Happiest: Patty Zawodny, Vince Rhodes.
Strongest: Karla Field, Eric Swartzel.
Most Independent: Lida Phillips, Bryan Slisher.
Friendliest: Lisa DeWitt, Shane Van Duyne.
Funniest: Angie Dittman, Rick Moon.
Most Talkative: Shelly Evans, Charlie Hendrickson.
Quietest: Athena Grass, Dale Urbin.
Best Leader: Lisa Scott, Dan Burns.
Most Talented: Carmen Leffert, Kevin Pruiett.
Most Handsome and Prettiest: Lori Wagoner, Tim See.
Biggest Eater: Karla Field, Eric Swartzel.
Best Dresser: Lori Wagoner, Dale Graham.

The class of '82 was not the average class. We were a fascinating group of students with many talents that will leave a gap at C.H.S., but the underclassmen are eagerly awaiting their year at the top.

IN APPRECIATION

The halls are dark and quiet, and school has been out for several weeks. After months of cropping pictures and writing copy, the yearbook is finally completed. Recording the events of an entire school year is a big job, but a very rewarding one.

We would like to thank the following people for making the yearbook possible: Advertisers, Fincher's, Jim Beckham, our representative, our staff, Sherry Fear, and Mrs. Terpstra, who handles the ads and the finances of the yearbook.

There are those who deserve an extra-special thanks: Our parents, who typed copy for us, and put up with late hours and grouchy editors, and Mrs. Cox, who helped us with her advice, understanding, and kindness.

Finally, we wish next year's editors, Jeff James and Martha Moss, the best of luck. The time has come to turn out the lights and close the door. Good-bye.

Kent Cress Darla Williams
